Conference Description

This conference will be organized to mark the 65th birthday and the subsequent retirement of Professor Rolf Jeltsch and we envisage it as an occasion to honor the numerous contributions of Professor Jeltsch to numerical analysis.

The conference will include the following themes:

- * Analysis of numerical schemes for hyperbolic conservation laws in multi-d
- * Computational modeling of plasmas
- * Uncertainty quantification of parametric hyperbolic conservation laws
- * Multi-level and adaptive methods for kinetic equations
